JOHN A. LUKE, JR. will be the featured speaker during the Student Recognition Dinner Tuesday evening, April 4 at the Shriver Center.

He is a graduate of Lawrence University and has his MBA from the Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania. He also served as an officer with the U.S. Air Force in Southeast Asia during the Vietnam conflict.

Mr. Luke began his career with Westvaco in 1979. In 1983, he was elected treasurer, and, in 1986, he was elected vice president. Between 1987 and 1989, as a senior vice president, his responsibilities expanded to include the corporate marketing function, the international sales organization and Rigesa, Ltda., Westvaco's Brazilian subsidiary. In 1989, he became a member of the board of directors. He was elected executive vice president in 1990, president and chief executive officer in 1992 and chairman in 1996. He was elected chairman of MeadWestvaco in November 2002.

He serves on various boards, including AF&PA and the Sustainable Forestry Board. He is also a trustee for the American Enterprise Institute for Public Policy Research, the American Forest Foundation and Lawrence University.
